ALFA, an extensive adult literacy program, is a project of Friends of Haiti at St. Bartholomew Parish, in partnership with the parishes of St. Ann & St. Isadore in Limonade. This year, we celebrate 16 years of literacy in Limonade and beyond.

After the run/walk, we invite all participants and volunteers to join us for Creole rice & beans and dancing to Haitian konpa! St. Bartholomew School, downstairs in the cafeteria.

THE POLIDOR 5K RUN/WALK 2018

for literacy in Limonade, Haiti

Saturday, November 10th, 9 a.m.
St. Bartholomew Church
Columbus, Indiana

We will walk and run in solidarity with all the market women and peasant farmers in Limonade who, like Polidor, are struggling to become literate.

At Carnival time, participants in our literacy program undertake a cross country walk.

They celebrate literacy, recruit more learners, and dance and sing through rural communities. Ours will be a companion event to help raise funds for basic class supplies and teacher stipends.
